Reasons for Allowance/Examiner's Comments

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: none of the prior art either alone or in combination disclose or teach of the claimed combination of limitations to warrant a rejection under 35 USC 102 or 103. Specifically, with reference to independent claim 1, none of the prior art either alone or in combination, disclose or teach of the claimed lens for reading specifically including, as the distinguishing feature in combination with the other limitations, the claimed fifth lens as a negative meniscus lens having a convex surface facing the object side. Specifically, with reference to independent claim 19, none of the prior art either alone or in combination, disclose or teach of the claimed lens for reading specifically including, as the distinguishing features in combination with the other limitations, the claimed illuminating the original in a slit like shape, imaging by reducing a reflected light from a portion illuminated on a line sensor by the lens for reading, and reading an original by illuminating and scanning a surface. Specifically, with reference to independent claims 21 and 23-24, none of the prior art either alone or in combination, disclose or teach of the claimed lens for reading specifically including, as the distinguishing features in combination with the other limitations, the claimed image forming lens configured to reduce and image a light reflected on the original and a line sensor to conduct a photoelectric transfer of an original image imaged by the image forming lens. Specifically, with reference to independent claim 30, none of the prior art either alone or in combination, disclose or teach of the claimed lens for reading specifically including, as the distinguishing feature in combination with the other limitations, the claimed first lens having an aspherical surface.

Examiner's Comments

In the Information Disclosure Statement received September 22, 2004, applicant listed "related applications" but has not complied with the requirements of MPEP 1.98 and therefore these listed applications have not been considered. Specifically, applicant is required to provide copies of any cited U.S. applications for consideration in compliance with 1.98(a)(2)(iii).

For applicant's further information, the Information Disclosure Statement received November 19, 2004 has been considered and the initialed IDS is attached hereto.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Jordan M. Schwartz whose telephone number is (571) 272-2337. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday to Friday (8:00-5:30), alternate Fridays off.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Georgia Y. Epps can be reached at (571) 272-2328. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
